

NEW POSTAL RATES

AIR MAIL .10

LETTERS .06

Increased rates for all classes of mail except parcel post and international mail will go into effect January 7, 1968. Postmaster Joseph Wolf reminded postal customers today.

"Even with the new rates of six cents for first-class mail and 10 cents for air mail, postal service is still a real bargain," Postmaster Wolf declared. "For six cents you can send a letter to any of the 50 states, to any United States territory or possession, to Canada, of Mexico, or to an American serviceman stationed anywhere in the world."

Postmaster Wolf pointed out that the new rate for post cards will be five cents and for air mail post cards eight cents.

He said the added cent in the letter rate is a 20% increase compared to a 24% boost in the rates for mailing newspapers and magazines and a 34% hike for advertising circulars, "occupant" mail and other material in the third-class category.

The new rate of six cents per ounce for first class mail applies up to 13 ounces and the new rate of 10 cents per ounce for air mail applies up to 7 ounces. Under the new rate structure all first-class mail over 13 ounces and all air mail over 7 ounces will be merged into a single category.

These heavier pieces of first-class and air mail subject to the single rate schedule will be delivered by the fastest available means of transportation.

A flat rate of 80 cents will be charged for all mail in this category up to one pound. For all mail weighing more than one pound, the present air parcel post rates will continue to apply, except that the postage on matter weighing between one and five pounds will change at half-pound intervals rather than one pound intervals.

REMARKS: In checking records sent to me by William L. Denmark of ESSA (Environmental Science Services Administration) Weather Bureau, Champaign, Ill., I found that this was the coldest New Year's Eve in quite some time. My records are pretty complete back to 1956, whether or not this is an all time record I will have to find out from Mr. Denmark.

For anyone burning oil when the temperature gets that low, for so long, a can of "Heat or Go" will save some headaches.

Village Board Makes Business Meeting Short

The Antioch Village Board of Trustees Tuesday night started the New Year out with a bang and dispatched its business in a record 38 minutes.

The only ones present at the meeting were the board members, the village attorney, two department heads and three reporters.

The meeting was somewhat enlivened when a representative of the Antioch Grade School Band petitioned the board for a tag day next July.

The board first remonstrated with the representative for not having the band in the village's parades and then granted July 6 as the tag day date.

The board approved an expenditure of $233.56 for snow and ice removal during the month of December and okayed the payment of $2,648 for repairs to well No. 3, which is now operating to capacity.

The only report given was the police department figures for the month of December which showed a total of 58 tickets issued for parking and 24 moving violations.

There were 13 non-traffic tickets issued and 13 fire calls for the month, 4 within the village limits.

The Antioch Rescue Squad answered 44 calls during the month, 10 within the village.

Mayor Raymond Toft pointed out that the village map is outdated and the board voted to authorize an updating of the map.

Toft suggested the map include some one-and-a-half miles outside the village limits and this action was approved.

Appointment Made For 1968 Heart Fund

North Shore Gas Company President Edwin M. Taber, Waukegan physician Dr. John Curns, and Deputy Circuit Court Clerk Frederick J. Morris have joined the leadership of the 1968 Lake County Heart Fund.

Taber will serve as County Industrial Chairman, Dr. Curns as Co-chairman for County Physicians, and Morris as County Vice-Chairman.

Their appointments were announced this week by Attorney Edward R. Holmberg, Sr., Lake County Heart Fund Chairman.

Taber has been affiliated with the Peoples Gas Light and Coke Co., parent company of North Shore Gas, since 1931. He was elected Executive Vice-President of North Shore Gas in 1962 and has been President of the firm since 1965. He and his family live at 1270 Burr Oak Road, Lake Forest.

Dr. Curns, a general practitioner, was Chief of Staff of Victory Memorial Hospital, Waukegan, for 1967. In 1963-64, he and his wife spent a year as volunteer workers for a 250-bed hospital in Salvador, Brazil. Their home is at 2303 Hyde Park, Waukegan.

Postage Vending Machines To Be Converted Jan. 7

Nearly 10,000 postage vending machines, including those at Antioch Post Office, will be converted over the next three months to reflect the new postage rates, Postmaster Joseph Wolf said today.

New postage rates go into effect January 7, 1968, the postmaster noted. The new rates raise first class postage to 6-cents on ounce, air mail to 10-cents an ounce, and postal cards to 5-cents.

The job of converting the thousands of vending machines found in post office lobbies from coast to coast is so massive that it will take several months to complete, the postmaster said. Five different types of machines are involved, he noted.

Most of the machines now provide 5-cent and 4-cent stamps for a nickel, quarter or dime. After the conversion, the machines will provide 5-cent and 6-cent stamps. A new model will offer 1-cent and 6-cent stamps.

The postmaster said that the vending machines located in the lobbies of post offices are not to be confused with commercial vending devices found in many stores. Such commercial machines provide a margin for profit and are not controlled by the Post Office Department, he said.

Looking through the names I see faces of people such as the Dean of Boys, who was at the school when I was a student. If he looks hard enough into the past years, he may remember my face also. I stood before his desk twice.

The superintendent that was there when my sisters were students.

English teachers that may read this and mark it as the poorest composition ever written . . . and thinking to themselves that I didn't learn very much in their class. . .

There was the name on the card of a secretary in the Student Personnel Office that I knew as a family friend, but still had to fill out a few detention forms for me.

A few alumni that, in the past, have given me lumps and bruises for minor disagreements. I call them growing pains.

Alumni that I looked up to and would have given my right arm to be as smart as they were—when all it would have taken was a few hours of study each night.

Alumnae—names were on the card that I would have given anything to go on a date with, but was too scared to ask. The boys that did ask the girls for a date and were accepted, also signed the card.

There were names of people on the side of life that can give me the help that I cannot give myself . . . and many, many others, all of possible voice in the selection of the Republican presidential nominee.

They said they are supporting U.S. Sen. Charles Percy as a favorite son candidate and U.S. Sen. Everett M. Dirksen for Governor of the Illinois delegation.

Gorter is former Republican State Central Committeeman and past president of the Lake County YGOP. Wickman, a retired businessman is chairman of the McHenry County GOP Central Committee. Schroeder, publisher of the Lakeland Newspapers, is also president of the Illinois Press Association and serves as treasurer of the Lake County Republican Federation. Devitt, an attorney, is GOP committeeman for Hanover Twp. in Cook County.

They call themselves Americans . . . bunks! All they want is a nice soft life and the hell with the rest of the people all over the world.

Viet Nam needs us. I just wish it were possible for those so called fair weather Americans to see for themselves what these people are going through.

I say this: Should we abandon Viet Nam now, your sons' sons will be fighting the Reds right here in the States.

Again thanks to you all and the best the year around.

"Thank You Antioch" From Viet Nam Boys

whom I respect and thank from deep inside my heart. I will never forget any of you, and neither will any other service man from our area. It is just a shame all of us can't come back.

Some of you may ask if it is worth it. Yes, it is. It is necessary to keep people like you from turning into human machines, controlled by a self selected few . . . and to help people that cannot fully help themselves from the same life.

I do not like war, in fact I hate it. But I also hate Communism. I choose the lesser of two evils. I may be wrong, and if I am, God will decide my fate.

I may have gotten off of the subject of thanking you all for thinking of me, and the others from Antioch, but I am pretty sure most of you will understand why I did.

In closing, I give all of you the Salute you deserve, and pray I can one day be a citizen in the same ranks as you. For I know, with you, the Colors of our country fly the highest.

Rec'd Dec. 27, 1967

Dear Friends of Antioch:—

I would like at this time to thank all of you for your many kindnesses in the packages that I have received in the past months, plus your signatures on the Christmas card was most appreciated.

I have an Aunt, Mrs. Frances Shostak and her son Ben, who live on Petite Lake and who have long been residents in that area. I miss them and am in hopes to see them soon.

Of course you read many letters on the life and struggle of the people here in Viet Nam, plus our own.

This "Long Overdue Letter" printed in the Chicago Tribune, was sent to me by the Lake Villa V.E.W.; can say how I feel so much better.

The morale of the troops here couldn't be better. It's tough, sure, but some of those folks back in the States make us a little bit ashamed of ourselves and of them.

They call themselves Americans . . . bunks! All they want is a nice soft life and the hell with the rest of the people all over the world.

Important Meeting Jan. 9 For AARP

The regular meeting of the Antioch Area Chapter, No. 387, of the American Association of Retired Persons, (AARP), will be Tuesday, Jan. 9, starting at 1:00 p.m. in the community room of the Antioch Savings & Loan Bldg. This will be an open meeting for the elderly citizens of the Antioch area and with limited parking in the Plaza area, members and guests are asked to park in the Village Parking lot.

The January 9th meeting will be the first meeting of the new year. A large attendance is expected, as information regarding the 1968 program will be outlined. With the recent activity in the various communities in the interest of "Low Rent Housing", many of the Antioch elderly citizens have approached the AARP Chapter to find out if something in the way of a housing unit cannot be on the program in Antioch for 1968. For this reason, the meeting on the 9th of January will be in the interest of our senior citizens and officials of the Lake County Housing Authority have been invited to attend and discuss the program.

The chairman of the County Housing Authority, John P. Dromey, of North Chicago and former mayor of that city will be in attendance with a message and assisting him also in attendance will be Clara M. Smith, Assistant to the Executive Director of the "Shiloh Towers" Unit just recently dedicated at Zion. Slides will be shown in connection with the talks.

The New Year

The year of 1967 has passed away and we are now looking with anticipation to the New Year — 1968.

But the past year has been one of accomplishment throughout Lake County.

At long last county residents have passed a junior college referendum and have elected its first board.

We hope that the plans for this institution go speedily along.

The past year has marked industrial growth in our county with the influx of many new residents. The 1970 census should find us well over the 350,000 mark in population.

In the works for the coming year are many new improvements in the fields of highway, sanitation and education.

In our own community of Antioch, Mayor Raymond Toft has listed a number of accomplishments he would like to see fulfilled in the new year.

Among these are expansion of the park program, the resurfacing of several streets and the widening of others and the completion of a sidewalk program that has been two years in the works.

All of these improvements, of course, are needed and we feel that they should move ahead.

We at The Antioch News feel that we have contributed in some small way to the betterment of the community as a whole.

We could not have accomplished this, however, without the support of the community in which we are an integral part.

The year 1967 was a good year in our community and county.

During the year 1968 we hope that you and yours will have a prosperous, happy and healthy New Year.

Junk Autos

We applaud the recent action of the Antioch Village Board of Trustees in its passage of an ordinance to rid the village of junk autos.

We do not have the reservations expressed by the village attorney, however, on our police officials moving into private property to remove these eyesores.

There is nothing more unsightly for those visiting a community—or living there for that matter—to view as they tour our town, than junk or abandoned cars littering the area.

The proper place for enforcement of our new ordinance is with the police department and we do not feel that it will place the policeman in a bad light.

The majority of the residents of the community are not the offenders in this matter. We are sure that to clean up our area the police department will have the full support of the citizenry.

The ordinance has been a long time coming. Action is now what is needed.

We will look forward with interest to see the effects of the project that will make our community a better one.

Letters to the Editor

Eads, Tennessee
Dec. 23, 1967
To the Editor
The Antioch News
Antioch, Illinois

Dear Sir:

Reported (UPI) Sept. 21, 1966:—"Secretary of State Rusk said Wednesday night that trading with Communist countries, even while resisting aggression in Vietnam, is a sound foundation for the foreign policy of the United States."

Reported (AP) September 24th, 1966:—"Leonid Brezhnev and President Tito expressed satisfaction on the development of Soviet-Yugoslav relations and pledged to work for their expansion. The two leaders condemned United States and pledged continued assistance to North Vietnam in their justified and heroic struggle. Ho Chi Minh confirms that these pledges are being kept."

As billions of dollars and thousands of lives are expended to resist Communism in Asia, we import unneeded consumer goods from the European Communists; everything from artificial flowers, to toys and typewriters and tobacco for American cigarettes. Going the other way to support the economy of Russia and the Satellites: such items as computers, factories, lumber mills, oil cracking plants and manufacturing machinery.

The foreign policy of both sides, as announced in September 1966, carries an unchanged at the end of 1967; except expanded in all aspects.

Yours truly,

Robert C. Baker

Take Your Time And Live Longer

Over the years holiday weekends have produced about 25% increase in traffic deaths compared with normal weekend driving, according to the Lake County Safety Commission. The Christmas holiday weekend has produced the most traffic deaths compared with other national holidays. In fact, the 24-hour period of Dec. 24th (Christmas Eve) has the worst traffic death record of any day of the year.

The Lake County Safety Commission lists the following advice for drivers during the Christmas holiday period:

"Start your trip early. Take your time. Slow down after dark. Take rest stops to maintain alertness. Remember, more persons are killed during the first 12 hours of the holiday period. The hours of 6 to 9 p.m. are the most hazardous.

"Don't drop your guard in familiar territory. Keep seat belts fastened even in familiar territory. Keep seat belts fastened even on short trips. Remember, half the fatal accidents happen within ten miles of home and two-thirds within 25 miles.

"The 'other driver' is not always to blame. Watch your own driving for excessive speed, inattention, and bad judgment. Remember, three out of five fatal holiday accidents involve only one vehicle. Usually the car either ran off the roadway, hit a fixed object, or struck a pedestrian.

"Pedestrians as well as drivers must adopt the spirit of Christmas and apply it to the walking and driving situation. Remember, in traffic you are always 'your brother's keeper.'

"Speed makes a car harder to stop, harder to control, and leaves you less time to take evasive action in an emergency. Remember, more than half of the fatal accidents on holidays involve a driver who has been speeding or drinking. Even a little alcohol impairs driving ability and reaction time.

"Studies show that two or three drinks double the chance of having an accident. If you plan to partake of some 'holiday cheer' do it without the automobile near. Plan your holiday festivities so as to separate the two activities of driving and drinking. Taxi rides are cheaper than accidents!

New Year Vigil

By Clyde Thomas

Mary Ann Gregg pulled the covers tightly against the sleeping child and silently closed the nursery door.

She turned down the volume on the TV set, turned the knob to the "off" position, then turned it on again. Night as well as day, for a time and see how some folks were welcoming in the New Year. There was nothing else to do.

"Don't start feeling sorry for yourself," she said out loud as she sat down in an arm chair. How many times each day had she said this, silently and aloud?

How could you convince yourself that you are just one of many? Thousands of women were without their husbands. Many permanently. At least, she knew that Stan was still alive. He had been a week ago, at any rate.

She picked up the letter from the coffee table and turned it thoughtfully between her fingers. No need to read it again. She knew it by heart. It was little different from the others, except that Stan had heard a rumor about being rotated home. This was not the first time he had heard such a rumor. Mary Ann had learned not to expect too much, not to worry about Stan coming home until he appeared in the doorway or she received the awful word he wasn't coming home at all. But, she had to worry. This she could not deny herself.

The one thing she could never seem to forget was that Stan had volunteered. She did not believe that she would ever fully understand why he had done so. He had been just out of college, in a new job, with a happy and expectant wife. Why did he do it? Why, oh why did men of their own free will go off to war?

Was it something he really believed in? Or, had Stan in reality ran away? When — and if — he came home, would he have fulfilled whatever obligation had taken him away; if he had been running, would he continue to do so?

What did it matter? The thing was simple; she was here and he was there and she needed him desperately. At this very moment, when people all over the world were finding a little something to be happy about, she was as miserable as she had ever been in her life.

The magic hour of midnight had arrived. Too loudly, "Auld Lang Syne" blared from the television speaker. Mary Ann could not rouse herself to turn down the volume. If the baby were disturbed, she had nothing to do but soothe and comfort until sleep returned.

She was, herself, more asleep than awake, less conscious of the television's blare than possessed with the sensation that somewhere a telephone was ringing and she must answer; or was it a doorbell that shrilled, "Let me in... let me in."

In the cold, grey light of dawn, she knew it had been neither. She fixed a pot of coffee and for a long time sat idly sipping, watching the gently falling snow collect in the corners of the kitchen window pane.

Finally, she roused herself. Methodically, from habit, she walked to the nursery and readjusted the blanket that protected the still sleeping child.

More to herself than to the child who could neither hear nor understand, she spoke with confidence: "This is the first day of the New Year. This is a day of promise and hope. We shall get a letter today, maybe even a phone call. Today we shall hear the word. We shall know that your father is coming home."

At that very moment, as if some magic word had been spoken, the telephone began to ring.

students have ten days of classes before instruction for the first semester ends on January 13.

The semester examination period is Jan. 15 through Feb. 3. First day of instruction will be Feb. 5.

Usually the first things children learn when they start school is how much money the other children get on their allowance.

Reager To Retire From Downey Post

Marion F. Reager, assistant director of Downey Veterans Hospital since May, 1962, will retire Jan. 12, it has been announced.

Reager will be closing out a career that spans 32 years and includes service in three civilian federal agencies and two military services.

Reager entered the VA service on Feb. 28, 1946 as a member of the personnel management staff, Atlanta, Ga., and since that time he has served as a personnel officer at one of the larger VA hospitals and as assistant hospital director at four VA hospitals.

He is a fellow of the American College of Hospital Administrators.

Before joining the VA, Reager served a tour of active duty in the Navy and during World War II he served as a captain in the Army.

He also held civil service assignment in the Social Security agency and in the Bureau of Census.

Reager was honored recently at a dinner held in the Waukegan Inn and was presented with certificates of appreciation by Dr. Joseph B. Bounds, assistant chief medical director of the Veterans Administration and Dr. W. W. Bourke, director of Downey hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. Reager will move to their new home in Port Charlotte, Fla., after his retirement. His plans include a period of vacation and then he hopes to continue in some hospital administration activities.

New Year Reunion

By James Michel

The morning after Christmas brings to most of us the realization that time is fleeting and the arrival of a New Year is upon us.

Joe Brown is no exception. Christmas for the Brown family had been exactly what you might expect for a family including five lively boys, ages two to ten.

Joe dreamed of spending a week at a nice, quiet, isolated oasis in the Sahara and he wished there were some way to beg, borrow, or fashion an excuse plausible enough to escape an annual obligation—the year-end reunion at the old Brown farm in Connecticut.

It was, of course, a great time for the grandparents. Two sons and two daughters, with ever-increasing broods, came each holiday season, in a tradition now more than a dozen years old.

Periodically, the brothers and sisters would secretly agree that it was just "too much." They scattered visits throughout the year, hinting to the grandparents that they "just might not be able to make it for the New Year reunion." But, they always did.

"I do have this big deal working with the Felter Company," Joe said to Sarah on the morning after Christmas.

"And, you have until February to work it out," Sarah responded.

Joe had expected no sympathy. Sarah's parents were dead, killed several years ago in an automobile accident. To her, the family reunion was something of an obligation, and she didn't mind using this particular word to express her attitude on the subject.

"But, what about the kids?" Joe asked. "You know they've been passing colds back and forth for weeks now."

"Maybe they'll pass them on to some of your relatives," Sarah countered. She was not necessarily fond of all of her in-laws, although no one but Joe had ever had the slightest reason to suspect such feelings.

It was snowing when Joe eased the car down the lane and parked beside the ancient frame house. Grandmother was beside the car before anyone had an opportunity to alight. Through the big front window, grandfather Brown waved a greeting.

Grandmother's greeting to five boys took several minutes. Some felt they were too old to be kissed; the others, perhaps by set example, ran or dodged until they were cornered.

Joe Brown put his arm around his mother's shoulder. "No one else here, yet?"

For just a moment, he thought he saw a distant gleam in his mother's eye. "Jack has called. Two of the kids are down with something or other and they can't come."

"What about Susan and Patricia?"

"Patricia called. They're snowed out, she says. Some of the roads have been closed and they don't know if they will be open to travel or not."

It was the quietest reunion at the Brown farm for some years. Susan called and grandmother explained only that Susan would not come, something to do with a new job that Tom was after.

Grandfather Brown enjoyed the children, but he spent most of his time in the rocking chair, a gray shawl wrapped around his slender shoulders. The past year had not been too kind to him, Jack observed.

When departure time came, grandfather, ignoring the comments of his dutiful wife about "exposing himself to the weather, walked out to the car. "I'm glad you came, Joe," he said.

"So am I," Joe responded. "We'll be back soon." He meant it. He also intended to have word or two with his brothers and sisters about the merits of the Brown family reunion.

GOP Fortunes Depends On Who Gets Nod

Illinois Republican fortunes in the 1968 contest for governor will depend on how well the party's candidate meets the requirements of the office, State Sen. Arthur R. Gottschalk, R-Flossmoor, said today.

Gottschalk, speaking at a meeting of Young Republicans, said the chances are better than even the Democratic candidate who has experience in the office.

"Therefore," he said, "the Republican candidate should be a man who has the best qualifications possible for the post for governor."

Gottschalk said the requirements would include thorough knowledge of state government; state budget; recognized party leader; business and executive experience; development of a legislative program; capable of a vigorous campaign and appeal also to the Democrats and Independents.

Gottschalk, who is expected to announce his candidacy for the Republican gubernatorial nomination Jan. 15, said the examination of the needs of the campaign and of the office itself will put the primary contest directly in the hands of the voter where it belongs.

"The healthy aspect of campaigning directly to the public," he said, "will be like a breath of fresh air in a political atmosphere too often left murky with backroom cigar smoke."

If Gottschalk does announce for the post he will join Cook County Board Chairman Richard Ogilvie and Peoria industrialist John Henry Altorfer in the race. Standing in the wings, waiting to see what happens is former Governor William G. Stratton, who is also eyeing the nomination.

American Legion Auxiliary News

By Del Jahneke

The Antioch American Legion No. 748 will hold their regular meeting, under the leadership of Mrs. Bernard Stadick, President, at the Antioch American Legion Home, on Friday, January 12th, at 8:00 p.m.

There will be an initiation of new members. The hostess committee will be Mrs. Ralph Fields, chairman, and Mrs. Dan Lightsey, Mrs. Ollie Tweed, and Mrs. Margaret Gaston.

Mrs. William Schultz, Sharon Unit, 10th District Director of the American Legion Auxiliary, Mrs. Richard Brady, Gurnee, Alternate Director; Mrs. Edward Wohlbrandt, Wauconda, District National Security Chairman; other District officers and Auxiliary members accompanied the 10th District Legion officers on a recent visit and tour of the Great Lakes Naval Hospital.

The entertainment, provided by Past District Commander Harold Meyers, of Fox Lake, consisting of magical acts by the renowned Marshall Brodeur; the Charles C. Royal Family Country and Western Group, Chicago; Miss Susie Burns, dancer; and Miss Kathy Murphy, folk singer, both of Fox Lake. The performers entertained approximately 400 bed patients.

Past District Commander George Swenson of Gurnee (a past Antioch Legion Post Commander) is in charge of the monthly parties held in the Great Lakes Hospital. Visiting Vietnam veterans is only one facet of the National Security Program of the American Legion Auxiliary. The Auxiliary also has valuable information about scholarships available, through the armed forces, to student nurses, college students majoring in nursing, and high school seniors considering a career in nursing.

These armed forces scholarships provide tuition, board and room, and books. A lack of funds is no longer a reason for not pursuing a nursing career if one has the desire. There is a critical shortage of nurses in the armed forces, and the American Legion Auxiliary is cooperating to help alleviate this condition. Additional information can be obtained from Mrs. John W. Horan, Jr., Antioch Unit National Security Chairman.

The Illinois American Legion Auxiliary National Security Program includes many services. One phase of the program is the support of the U.S.O. through contributions, home-baked treats, books, records, and fruit. Medals will also be presented to outstanding cadets in the R.O.T.C. at many schools throughout the state during Federal Inspection week.

Many units, including the Antioch American Legion Auxiliary, are participating in the "Operation Home-Town Newspaper" program for servicemen who are based overseas.

Both Miss Albrecht and Mr. Dalgard are juniors at the University of Illinois in Champaign.

New Guide Book For Youths Available On Scholarships & Aid

Ray Page, State Superintendent of Public Instruction, has announced a new guide providing information for financial assistance to Illinois youths seeking college scholarships has been published. The publication, "Financial Aids to Illinois Students," is a combined effort of the American Legion "Need a Lift" program and the Department of Scholarship Services of the state office.

Russell P. Bieritz, Department Commander, Illinois American Legion, said the Legion will make every effort to assist in helping the youth of Illinois find educational opportunities. He said "The Legion is proud of the part it has taken in the publication of this book and its association with the Office of Superintendent of Public Instruction and Illinois colleges and universities and more than 200 national organizations that cooperated in this worthwhile project."

The book is the most complete up-to-date guide available and is a fine reference source of information and careers, and a guide to millions of dollars available to youths who are seeking college careers.

Superintendent Page said "The information in this publication will be of valuable assistance to both parents and students planning careers. It is ever too early to make plans for educational advancement, in fact, the freshman year of high school is not too early to do so."

Superintendent Page is encouraging parents and students to visit high school guidance counselors for assistance in educational plans and careers.

Copies of the publication are being mailed to counselors of public and private schools, community library centers and other organizations working with students on educational planning.

Two Girl Scouts Receive Awards

Senior Girl Scouts Darlene Borecky and Bonnie Davis will receive the Marian Medal from Father Henderson on January 8 at 7:45 in St. Peter's Church.

The girls have been in Girl Scouts 9 years and have been working on the Marian Award since March 1966. They are members of Senior Troop 110.

This work consists of 40 projects involving every line of their religion from Scripture readings to a pilgrimage to Aylesford in Downers Grove, Ill., which they walked the last miles. They also joined in an all day retreat at Benet Lake, Wis., and visited the St. Francis Monastery and College at Burlington, Wis.

The Marian Award is the highest religious award to be presented to a Catholic Girl Scout.

Darlene is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Borecky of Venetian Village of Lake Villa and a member of Prince of Peace Parish. Bonnie is the daughter of Police Sergeant and Mrs. Jack Davis of Antioch and a member of St. Peter's Parish.

All Girl Scouts are invited to attend this presentation. The Altar and Rosary Sodality sponsored this program which started with eight girls. Refreshments will be served in the school by the Third Order of St. Francis following the Church Services.

Channel Lake Kids Make Big Promises For The New Year

Channel Lake School parents should have no problems with their 4th and 5th graders next year if the children follow the resolutions they wrote recently for The Antioch News.

Virtually all promised to wash dishes, clean house, make their beds, and to be good to everyone.

Here are some excerpts from some of Miss Sheila Nelson's 4th graders:

James Pierce wrote: "I promised my mother I would fix my bed every morning. I would clean up the house. I am going to pick up my toys every day. I will wash the dishes. I promise to jump on my bed every day. I promise not to hit my sister. I will not mess the house. I am going to help someone who needs help."

Steve Rutledge promises "to walk my dog every day, to clean my bedroom every week; I promise to do the chores without being told. I promise not to hit girls at anytime; I promise to not bake the law and order."

Roger Aronson promises "I will be good as I could at school. I will help my mother do dishes. I will listen to my teacher at school. I will help the old lady across the street. I will be a loud mouth; I will get mad at kids at school."

Michael Horsch promises "I will feed the dog every day. I will do what my mom tell me. I will not hurt kids when we play ruf. I will not play whit fire."

Mark Clark promises "to do the dishes; to pick up my clothes when I get home on New Year's Eve; I promise to get a horse after New Year. I promise to help decorate our house red, white and blue strips in the middle of the room of our house on New Years."

Dellia Nantz promises "to vacuum the bed rooms; to do the dishes; to help water my pony and horse and my ten cows; to help my mother move furniture."

Mr. Harlan Ware's 5th graders made the following resolutions:

Donna Evink promises "to study more for my test, to share my things with more people; to try to get along with people. to help my mother more than I do."

Jimmy Loveless says that "I am going to clean my room for once; feed my mouse and cat and dogs and hamstare and bird and me. I like math. I hate to stop! calacten rocks."

Diane Huege says "I will help my mother more often at home. I also have to study harder in school and make my grades go up. I also will not fight with other people."

Olen Nantz promises "I will come home from school and go to the barn and feed and water and run the horses. Then I will go in the house and do my homework."

Susan Marie Pearse thinks "I could help in everything a little better. I could do a little better improving two subjects like handrighting and spelling. I am going to try and help my parents around the house like watching my sister when my mom and dad go somewhere or if they're busy. I do watch my sister but we don't get along with each other, so I'm improving and am getting better at it each day."

On cold winter mornings it is important to let your car engine warm up before venturing into traffic. This good safety habit helps prevent stalling and also prolongs the life of your engine. But remember, if you keep your car in a garage, open all doors before starting the engine. In a closed garage, the concentration of carbon monoxide from your car's exhaust can be deadly.

Music Center Sponsors Art, Music Groups

An unusual class in ceramics and an adult community chorus under the direction of the director of The Music Center of Lake County will start in the next few days.

Robert Christensen, director of the not-for-profit school, said Miss Susan Smith, a Hull House instructor with a degree from the Rhode Island School of Design, will teach the ceramics course.

The class members will start with clay and do their own shaping—no molds will be used, said Christensen. The class will use a potter's wheel, a kiln and various glazes that they will make.

He said it is unusual for a ceramics class to shape with their hands using the bare earth of clay.

Discussing the chorus, Christensen said 30 persons of high school age and above already have signed up for the adult course. People who want to sing may join the chorus and need not be students of the school, he said.

The chorus will meet from 7:45 p.m. to 9:15 p.m. every Tuesday, starting January 9. A monthly fee of $1 will be charged.

A ceramics class will meet from 7 p.m. to 9:30 p.m. Wednesdays starting January 10. There will be a $5 supply fee in addition to the regular registration and tuition based on ability to pay.

Christensen said interested students should contact the Music Center school which is located in Lilac Cottage, Bowen Park, Waukegan, or call him at 244-4270.

Rockford Victors In Classic Tourney

The 1967 Classic was won by Rockford Guilford. In the championship game, Guilford beat Chicago Carver 68-59. Third place went to Peoria Manual.

Despite the fact, the Antioch Sequoits lost two games at the tournament, they played some fine basketball. The Sequoits lost their first game to Rockford Guilford, the tourney champs, by a score of 76 to 64. The game started out in good form for the Sequoits as they took an early 8-4 lead.

The Vikings came on strong in the late stages of the first quarter behind some fine shooting of Mark Hunt. The quarter ended 20-16 Guilford.

During the second quarter the Viking fast break and their control of the boards they started to move to a comfortable half time lead of 45-27.

In the second half the game was all Antioch, as the Sequoits played their finest basketball of the season. Led by Steve Miklausch, Rodney Boswell, and Dave Camp, the Antioch Sequoits closed the gap to 10 points 61-51 at the end of the third quarter.

Had it not been for 6' 6" Larry Dykstra, who scored 10 points in the quarter, the margin of lead would have been less.

As the fourth quarter started, the Sequoits continued to play excellent basketball and with 3 1/2 minutes remaining, they trailed Guilford by 8 points 68-60. At this point, Guilford went into a stall.

Twice the Sequoits had a chance to cut the margin to 6 points, but just couldn't get that clutch basket. With the stall by Guilford, the Sequoits had to foul and Guilford cashed in at the foul line, with the final score reading 76-64.

Jim Carlson, starting in place of injured Steve Owens, did a fine job.

Stated Coach Andrews: "We played some of our finest basketball. Steve Miklausch and Dave Camp played some outstanding basketball and Rodney Boswell looks like he is coming. The experience we obtained by playing some outstanding basketball teams will be of great value. We have built some confidence in ourselves, we will reverse the first half of the 1967-68 season. Yes, we are going to start the year 1968 off by winning."

On Friday morning the Sequoits took the count against the Harlan Falcons. The final outcome was a hard fought 60-68 victory for the Falcons.

The game started out very cautious, with Harlan taking a 13-10 lead at the end of the quarter. During the second quarter, the Sequoits went flat, the Falcons' rebounding was very impressive and they were off flying to an 18 point lead at half-time, 36-18.

Displaying real courage, the Sequoits fought back, and outscored Harlan 18 to 10 in the third quarter. The team really played well, led by Steve Miklausch, Rodney Boswell, and Dave Camp.

Then in the fourth quarter, the Sequoits continued to function. Boswell fouled out, but Miklausch, Camp, and Tony Barnett led the attack and with one second to go in the game Antioch was down only two points.

Final plans have been completed and a king-size pile of prizes assembled, all awaiting the starting gong of the Northern Illinois Conservation Club's 7th annual Ice Fishing Derby, the biggest of its kind in the state, Sunday, January 7, at 9 a.m.

This year's derby is being held on Loon Lake, and entrance to the lake is at Joe & Helen's Little Acres on Loon Lake Road, just east of Route 83, about two miles south of Antioch. Participants and watchers may park their cars here, free of any charge.

Joe & Helen's will be open on this day to serve hot food and refreshments to visitors.

Derby officials led by Richard Waters, Channel Lake, made an on-site inspection of the Loon Lake ice on Tuesday, Dec. 26th, and found over six inches of good hard ice. With the current trend of weather, it is expected there will be 12 to 15 inches

A 50 hour HO slot car race marathon was completed Thursday, Dec. 28, at 2 p.m. by Don and Carl Chaput and Dave and Steve Terry at the Chaput home, Rt. 1, Salem.

The marathon started on Tuesday at noon on one track and was alternated on two other tracks with 19 cars. An average of 250 laps per hour was achieved during the 50 hour marathon.

The rules concerning the marathon were continuous racing, allowing 5 minutes per hour to switch tracks and to repair any cars malfunctioning. The schedule was set up so that each racer had 4 hour shifts, but did not race over 2 hours with each other at any one time.

The weary boys said later, "It was a challenge that was tiring, but fun."

Sequoia Wrestlers Place 6th At Grant

Antioch High School's Wrestling team took sixth place in the Grant Holiday tournament. Coach Andrew

Hauptman remarked, "We could have done better if a little more effort had been put forth by a few of the individuals."

"We had two boys that lost in overtime matches, and we had two boys that did not make weight which hurt the team I am sure one of these boys would have gone to the finals."

"Boys that did an outstanding job for us are Gary Aerne and Bob Diemer. Gary took 4th in the 120 lb. class and Bob took third in the 133
lb. class. Bob was the only boy to get two pins in the tournament. He is one of the three seniors on our squad his year, and is doing a fine job for only being out the second year."

Every man needs a wife because too many things go wrong that cannot be blamed on the government.

License Mailing Costs Up 5 Cents

Secretary of State Paul Powell said today that license plates being sent for the 1968 registration period must be prepaid at the rate of approximately 19 cents. Mr. Powell said the increase in cost of mailing is due to a recent ruling by postal authorities concerning identification cards mailed with the plates. This adds 5 cents to the overall cost of mailing out the 1968
plates.

The secretary of State adds that there was no appropriation in his 1968 budget for this contingency since he was initially informed of the matter in July 21st of this year, after the Illinois General Assembly had adjourned.

Mr. Powell said he had made a trip to Washington and talked to the Assistant Postmaster General in an attempt to explain Illinois' position, but his request for a year's delay was turned down.

It may also be noted by motorists that some of the plates received by mail this year will bear differing amounts of postage. This is due to a variation in the thickness of some of the plates. The agreement with the manufacturer provides for an adjustment at the conclusion of the contract to cover additional postage required, because of the extra thickness of some of the plates.

Pedestrians out walking after dark should wear something white or light colored if possible, according to the Chicago Motor Club-AAA.
Pedestrians also must remember to cross only at intersections. Never assume the driver of a car will slow down or stop for you. He may not even be able to see you until it's too late.

Gardening is a down to earth hobby.
